

Family History Worksheet

Students can use this worksheet to track their families' personal migration histories. If either the maternal or paternal responses for the questions are the same or unknown, please indicate so on the worksheet. Students can use extra paper in order to answer the questions as detailed as possible.

A. Where did your family live fifty years ago? In what city, state, and/or country did they live?

Maternal: _____

Paternal: _____

B. Can you describe their neighborhood? What did your family's house look like? Which communities lived in their neighborhood? How does this differ from your family's neighborhood today?

Maternal: _____

Paternal: _____

C. Did your family move? When, where, and why did they move? Who in the family moved, and who stayed?

Maternal: _____

Paternal: _____

D. Can you trace your family's migration to your current neighborhood? How were your family's neighborhoods, cities, and/or countries different? What racial/ethnic communities made up new neighborhoods?

Maternal: _____

Paternal: _____

